

Directions to Northgate Peaks Trail

Getting There

The Kolob Terrace Road is a paved road that winds in and out of Zion National Park on its way to the Kolob Reservoir.

- Turn north onto this road from SR9 at the sign in Virgin, Utah.
- Park at the Wildcat Canyon parking lot which is 15.7 miles from the Virgin turnoff.
- This parking lot is about 3/4 mile from the sharp switchback turn on the Kolob Road and at the end of a long hill up the mountain face.
- This portion of the Kolob Road is not plowed in winter.

The Trail

- The trail is relatively flat and easy walking.
- Follow the Wildcat Canyon trail east for 1.1 miles to the junction of the Northgate Peaks trail.
- From here the trail travels south for about 1 1/4 miles to a viewpoint overlooking the West and East Northgate Peaks and the North Guardian Angel Peak beyond.
